

11 pvt professionals set to work with senior bureaucrats

Bengaluru: The government selected 11 professionals from the private sector to work with senior bureaucrats for 18 months. The project is being enabled through the Indian Administrative Fellowship, pioneered by Nudge Foundation to draw senior professional talent towards solving development challenges in collaboration with the government.

Chosen from among 2,000 applicants nationwide, the 11 professionals are from IT, finance, education, environment and entrepreneurial sectors. Their average experience is 24 years. They hold degrees from Stanford, Harvard, IIMs, Institute of Chartered Accountants of India and other reputed institutions. TNN
