■ 'CNG, EV, Hybrid Sale Share may Grow to 30%'

MUMBAI: CNG, EVs and hybrid vehicles may grab up to 30 per cent share in total auto sales in next five years even as petrol cars are likely to dominate passenger vehicle volumes in medium-term, a report said on Tuesday. Demand for EVs has increased exponentially in the last two years with the government's push, increasing awareness, and new launches, domestic rating agency Icara said in its report.
