

EXECUTIVE DIGEST

---

Packirisamy is Andhra Bank CEO and MD

Hyderabad: State-run Andhra Bank on Friday said J Packirisamy has been appointed as its new CEO and managing director. Prior to this, Packirisamy was the deputy MD of State Bank of India (SBI), which he joined in 1984 as probationary officer I. During his tenure with SBI, he donned various caps such as CEO of Frankfurt branch, GM of CAG – Chennai branch, among others. TNN

Kenes Exhibitions AGRITEX from October 4: Kenes Exhibitions on Friday announced that the sixth edition of AGRITEX, that will showcase the latest technology in agriculture, dairy farming, food processing, aquaculture and horticulture, will be held during October 4-6 in Hyderabad. The event is expected to have over 150 exhibitors and 50 startups showcasing their technologies. TNN

Hindustan Shipyard inaugurates its largest rooftop solar plant in AP: State-run Hindustan Shipyard Ltd on Friday announced that it has inaugurated the largest rooftop solar plant in Andhra Pradesh by partnering with Mumbai-based renewable energy player, CleanMax Solar, which has commissioned a 2MW rooftop solar plant for the PSU at Visakhapatnam. The solar plant will help the shipyard save Rs 48 lakh per annum in energy costs while also reducing its environmental footprint. TNN

JK Tyre & Industries launches 'JK Truck Wheels Centre' at Nizamabad: JK Tyre & Industries Ltd on Friday announced launch of 'JK Truck Wheels Centre' at Nizamabad, Telangana, to cater to the growing demand for truck/bus tyre services and solutions in the region. It is the 41st showroom in the country and is located on NH-44 highway connecting Hyderabad to Nagpur. TNN

Swiggy launches services in eight new cities: Food ordering and delivery platform, Swiggy, on Friday announced the launch of its services in eight new cities – Vijayawada, Dehradun, Pondicherry, Mysore, Nasik, Guwahati, Kanpur, and Ludhiana. TNN